

half day blast

half day kayak and water taxi

If you are short on time or simply want just a little taste of the national park then the Half Day Blast is the perfect trip for you. This trip runs morning and afternoon; Marahau to Watering Cove in the morning, Watering Cove to Marahau in the afternoon. The tour takes you through the sheltered waters of the southern Abel Tasman National Park. You'll be surrounded by golden beaches, the idyllic Adelle and Fisherman Islands, tidal inlets and caves, granite rock formations and an array of wildlife that inhabit the turquoise waters of the Tasman Bay. It's a fantastic little trip. Your trip will either start (pm) or finish (am) with a water taxi transfer depending on which tour you do.

Variations: There are a number of ways that you can make a full day of this trip. You can walk the alternative leg between Marahau and Watering Cove, ie. If you kayak on the morning HDB then may choose to spend the afternoon walking the coastal track back to Marahau 3 hours (instead of taking the water taxi). Other one day kayak and walk options include our very popular Gourmet Platter or the Abel Tasman Platter tours. Also: a great trip to take on the last day of a walking trip if you are coming from the north of the Abel Tasman. Arrange to meet us at Watering Cove on the last afternoon. We'll transport your pack and you sit back and enjoy the kayak trip out of the national park.
